

How to Meet the Standard for Self-Assessment against the PSI Core Competency Framework

Why do I have to submit a CPD cycle created following self-assessment against the Core Competency Framework?

The PSI (Continual Professional Development) Rules 2015 (S.I. No. 553/2015) require that pharmacists regularly self-assess against the Core Competency Framework for Pharmacists. One of the ePortfolio Review standards for 2023/24 requires that at least one cycle is created and submitted following self-reflection against the Core Competency Framework for Pharmacists. This enables pharmacists to demonstrate that they are meeting the requirements set out in the legislation.

How do I meet this standard?

To meet this standard, the ePortfolio extract you submit must contain at least one cycle created following self-reflection against the Core Competency Framework in the current year, i.e. 2023 (or in 2024 up until the end of the submission period).

How do I create a cycle which demonstrates that I have self-assessed against the PSI Core Competency Framework in the current year?

You can submit a cycle that demonstrates that you have self-assessed against the PSI Core Competency Framework in the current year by choosing the appropriate option from the checkboxes listed under the Self-Appraisal stage of the relevant cycle

To do this, submit a CPD cycle that starts at Self-Appraisal stage ensuring that the "Completing self-assessment against the Core Competency Framework" checkbox is ticked 1 AND that you have described how you identified this learning or development need in the text box provided for the Self-Appraisal stage. Please note that this cycle must be created in the current year (i.e. 2023 or 2024 up until the end of the submission period).

How can I identify cycles which meet the CCF standard in my ePortfolio?

You can identify cycles which meet the CCF standard within the open cycles (as above) and in the completed cycles section of your ePortfolio. To meet the standard you should select a cycle which has a cycle type CCF 1 which was also created 2 in the current year (i.e. 2023 or 2024 up until the end of the submission period).
